Happy 10th Anniversary Robert & Anne

In thinking about Robert & Anne's 10th anniversary here I counted up that he's the ninth pastor I've worked with. I can say without hesitation that I've never felt more trust from a pastor. In the eight plus years we've worked together he's made two song suggestions (And yes, those songs were sung!). He's admitted to me that his preference of worship style is not as modern as what we sing but he understands that we should sing a mix of styles and trusts me to choose songs that will be effective vehicles of worship to God. Our offices are across the hall from each other and he seldom mentions the volume in which I play my guitar or music in general. However, his "80's inspirational playlist" does get bumped up in volume on occasion... We don't always agree either, but we continue to be co-workers and friends, working together for God and our church. It's clear to me that Robert has been the man of God to lead us from one campus to two, back to one and now to the mall. Not many pastors could do that! Lastly, of all the pastors I've worked with, I haven't seen a better husband/wife team than Robert and Anne. They complement each other so well and, like all intelligent men, he married way above his league! It's an honor for Marcy and me to serve at FBCTC with Robert and Anne - Happy 10th Anniversary!

John Talley

Happy Anniversary!

I am grateful to be a part of a church staff that fits together like FBCTC's. I am so very appreciative of the opportunity to serve a great church and community along with a great staff. The main reason that it works so well begins with the Pastor. Bro. Robert has created an atmosphere of support and encouragement among our staff and has provided solid leadership during transitional times. The future is bright for FBCTC, thanks to his vision and leadership. Thank you, Dr. Miller, for 10 years of ministry, and for being my pastor.

Dennis Johns

I've enjoyed serving under Robert's leadership for the last 10 years. He's been encouraging, fun to work with and a great Godly mentor. I've appreciated his words of wisdom, his humor, and his honesty. I've observed his generosity, selflessness and compassion. I love that he leads with boldness and has a heart for God and the Word of God. Thank you, Bro. Robert, for being our pastor for 10 years!
