A Message From Meshel Hara

It feels GREAT to be somewhat “settled in” at our new mall campus! And it was GREAT to be able to have our children’s classes last week as well! Over the last several weeks it has been GREAT to see the body of Christ, our church, in action. The task of moving was a BIG one, and it gave us many opportunities to exercise our “body.” Everyone helped when they could and with what they could, all to bring God the glory. And that’s what I LOVE about our church! I do love our new building, but that’s not the church. Our church is the people who love and who serve because of their love for our amazing God. Thank you for putting your serving muscle in overdrive the last couple of weeks! I’ve enjoyed serving with you!

We have another GREAT opportunity for you to serve coming up! Our Christmas Teddy Bear Tea will be here soon on Saturday, December 1, at 2:00pm at the Doyle Convention Center in Texas City. There will be many opportunities to serve as we reach out to our community to give families the opportunity to celebrate the real reason for the season at this event. Be sure to invite your friends and family. Tickets are $10 a person. Tickets can be purchased on Sundays before or after church, at the church office during the week or online at fbctc.com.

One way you can participate is by signing up to be a server. We have a goal of 60 servers, men or women. We will also need a lot of people to help with set up and decorating starting at 7am on December 1st as well as food preparation. We will also need people to volunteer to pack their vehicle full of supplies/decorations on Friday evening and then meet us at the Doyle Convention Center at 7am. We also have some “work” days planned soon to get our decorations organized and to have a good plan of action for December 1st.

You can sign up to serve/volunteer at our Teddy Bear Tea table in the church foyer on the Gringos side or you can email me at mhara@fbctc.com.

If you would like more opportunities to serve at FBCTC, click on “ways to serve” from the main menu on our website, fbctc.com.
